COMBINING HIS OWN RESEARCHES AND STUDIES
WITH QUANTUM PHYSICS AND CREATING AN ORIGINAL
TECHNIQUE, R. ŞANAL BROKE NEW GROUND IN TURKEY
WITH HIS "QUANTUM THINKING TECHNIQUE".

With his studies of over thirty years about spiritual practices and hypnosis, he pursued the aim of creating a "Mental Technology" for the true freedom of human beings. All training and works he has included in his repertoire ensured that he notice how his uniform conscious operation affected human beings and that this was directly related to the Quantum physics. Because he think that it formed the person's patterns and key beliefs affecting its current life, he developed his works in areas like Reincarnation, Ecmimesis and Previous Lives.

He made studies and prepared works about the History of Religions and Sufism and particularly about Mevlana Celaleddin-i Rumi and his universal approach. He focused on the integrity of the unique union of the entire universe of the quantum approach.

- It is exciting to look at a field where matter turns into energy and thoughts turn into reality.
- The fotons of the sub-atomic world await your orders.
- Learning to think again for a life full of plenty, excitement, love and affection is an enjoyable adventure.
- We have slowly begun to see the results of using the multi-layered and multi-dimensioned human consciousness to full capacity.
- The Quantum Thinking Technique is not based on a simple principle of "think and gain". It also provides us with a way of synchronizing with universal principals.
- The Quantum Thinking Technique is a technique that aims complete synchronization. A technique that aims to do rather than talk, to be rather than know, to reach the core rather than changing.

QUANTUM AFFIRMATION

R.ŞANAL

A word is a packet of energy and the concrete version of thought. When you say "I", the force inside you will stand up and say "command".

This is why if you say "I" you must be very careful what you say afterwards.

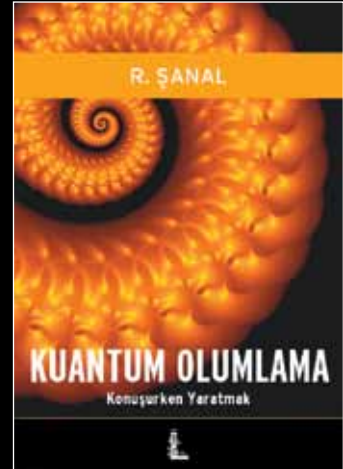

Quantum Affirmation gives you the technique to use the "magic words" that will help you give direction to your life.

"The endless source is within me and I put it in action"

"My first responsibility is to be myself."

"Know that you are always smarter, prettier and more able than you think."

"There is no great difference between Man deciding something and God deciding something, because both come true!"

Quantum Affirmation was more popular than was expected. The popularity of Affirmation and the results that were achieved brought an understanding that the way to solve every problem was to find a suitable “affirmation” sentence.

Just as the reason for people going through what they do is not taking the responsibility of being happy and self-realization, for the same people to take this responsibility is the sole element that starts the affirmation process.

In this book; you will find the affirmations that are most affective, whose efficacies are most tested and the most effective affirmations for breaking a core belief. Doing affirmation is very different from reading affirmations. While repeating the affirmations often in a tone of voice audible to the ear is sufficient, affirmations cannot be read like one reads a book. The person feels more peaceful, calm and stronger than before.

Come on then, let it be!

QUANTUM LEAP

R.ŞANAL

Why does a person have problems?

[Or become sick, poor or lonely?

- a) God is punishing him for some known or unknown reason. (Fate)
- b) He is unlucky and therefore he always meets the wrong people. (Whatever that may mean!)
- c) He caught the sickness from the air or the water or the food he eats, because he works too hard, because he sits around too much, it's a professional hazard or it is due to childhood trauma.
- d) The sickness is genetic. (A sort of fate then!)
- e) He is sick for an unknown reason. (At least we know the reason is unknown.)
- f) His problems stem from the angles of the planets in his astrological chart.
- g) All or none (Pick whichever you like!)

The correct answer is "g". But "why" and "how"?
"Quantum Leap" answers these questions.

Can one main sentiment, one main thought be the core of a person's character?

If a person's character is the basis of their destiny, can we change our destiny by changing the first main thought?

With this book you will be able to determine your own main thought and to find out which type you are.

Really knowing the people around you will be easier with the "Quantum Typology" book.

You must read this book if you want to find out the reasons behind your own actions and the actions of others.

Quantum Typology is a completely new and original typology.

It is the fruit of ten years of R. Şanal's labor.

QUANTUM AND THE QUR'AN

R.ŞANAL

The main principals of Quantum Physics and the message the Qur'an tries to give us overlaps. The dynamic relationship between the observer and the observed, the principal of "unity" and the intelligent, energy based construction of the universe...

All these overlap so completely with the secret hidden in some striking verses. For example, understanding the meaning of the Fatiha Chapter alone could cause the world to celebrate for a week.

In this book you can find meditation exercises for unity based on the common points between Quantum and the Qur'an.

Why are thirty four of the poorest countries in the world Muslim countries?

The reason for this cannot be the Qur'an's message.

Maybe the more you lose this spirit, the darker, harder and steeper the road becomes.

Isn't it sufficient to look back to history to realize what will happen when we notice the light hidden in the core of revelation?

How many women's underwater silence do I carry inside me, you would tremble to touch it! Your smallest touch would have a butterfly effect and you could change the entire flow within me.

I created many different women within myself. They change according to the situation and the feeling. One of them, the craziest one who does whatever she wants has a different, crazy style. Another one is very serious; she walks around wearing a frown, very afraid of being misunderstood, being misunderstood and all alone. Another one is soft, looking at everything through the window of love. She talks about love continually but she only owns love in words, she has never experienced it. One of them is a dreamer, she keeps on dreaming, she is brave if she believes in something she goes after it. She is the one that is most like you. If she decides to go she can be as heartless as you. I have many more sides, sides I created for you to love me and so I don't lose you when you return one day. I don't know what you would like. If there are a lot of me, all of them different, you will like one side and stay forever.

"What would make you love me?"

THE HEALING POWER OF DREAMS

İŞIK ELÇİ

In this book, Işık Elçi gives us clear vision so as we can understand our forgotten dreams that haven't been used enough. If we read our dreams well they can guide us, light our way and heal us.

Every dream is personal to the dreamer. An incorrect interpretation can affect us on the emotional plane. The meanings of symbols in books interpreting dreams doesn't enlighten our spiritual reality. We must interpret all the fragments of our dreams based on our own experiences, thoughts and wishes. Only then can our dreams be of use to us.

In her book "The Healing Power of Dreams", Işık Elçi shares the dream readings she has received in trainings within Turkey and abroad. You will find a message to yourself in every dream, become a master of interpreting dreams and you will be able to benefit from your dreams and even form your own dream book thanks to the basic information you will learn here.

THE THREE DIMENSIONS OF COMMUNICATION

GÜNGÖR ÖZYİĞİT

Many people apply the things they learnt from the forbears without thinking when communicating with others as it is with many things. Blindly. That is not the way to give the messages that suit his aims. On the contrary this means the message isn't delivered and he has not communicated in the way he wanted. Then he sits down and laments his fate. He complains, gets angry, gets angry with fate. In this book, GÜNGÖR ÖZYİĞİT shows us in a wonderful way how we manage to communicate and not communicate.

LABRANDA

THE VOICE OF NOWHERE AND ALL TIMES

R.ŞANAL

The Labranda area is the pre-historic name of the region where the first cave pictures that didn't contain scenes of war and hunting were found...

Seeing the scenes that had passed before my eyes as I practiced deep thinking near Lake Bafa in those cave paintings surprised me. Apparently they used to pray to the moon goddess Selena in that region.

And the composition I formed with the voices I heard with those scenes will transport you back to those days.

The language used in this work is completely made up. It aims to remind you of the language of those times instinctively.

QUANTUM THINKING TECHNIQUE

The “Quantum Thinking Technique” is a superior thinking technique. Normal thinking techniques are limited energies that are ineffective and repeat themselves.

They have no strength to change and form. The Quantum Thinking Technique however, is a thinking technique that can be effective on a sub-atomic scale. It entails specially formed creations of words and pictures in a special level of consciousness.

On this level, the person becomes the master of his own life. The Quantum Thinking Technique acts even further on the level of the common intelligence.

When you start working with the energy that makes the whole universe evolve, you surpass the limited possibilities of being a “person” and reach the strength of the “whole”.

Then, naturally, your strength will be equal to that of the whole.

THE HEALING POWER OF DREAMS

“Guiding Dreams” that is one of the most important steps of the voyage of self-development is an important method of remaining you of the choices of your higher self.

These dreams, that are more important because of the dimension they come from, make you ask “what” and “how” instead of “why” and thus helps you in your life’s aim. It helps you work together with your higher self and the entire universe beyond that, develop your creativity, to break the repeating patterns, boost your self-esteem, be better in many things and communicate correctly.

WHAT IS HOLI-LEARNING?

It accepts the person's inner life, family, social circle as a whole and evaluates it. It is a system that provides quick, easy and long-lasting learning for all levels of consciousness and styles of learning. In short, the system we call Holi-Learning minimizes the time that would be wasted using the outdated methods and provided enjoyable and long-lasting learning.

This learning model uses representative systems and special tests to determine what kind of intelligence the person is closer to.

It creates balance and harmony between the type of intelligence the student uses and the type of intelligence the student doesn't use and makes learning possible from every angle.

Individuals from every age and intelligence group who want to carry their own potential to the top become the "Master of Thoughts and not the slave" with a program of about 15 sances and a period of about 10 months at our center.

WHAT IS SPIRITUAL LIFE COACHING?

“At the moment you do the job you want, have the relationship you want and live the life you want, you will attain self-confidence and you will feel safe. This means you have the feeling of “BEING YOURSELF” in your whole body, soul and mind.”

Worrying and being afraid about the future, wanting to feel safe can cause spiritual disconnection and unhappiness in the individual. The person says so longer as I have a job, a partner and a home. They make sentences begin with “so long as”. This draws us and our spirit away from our own life goal and directs us to false goals.

When this happens, we have a feeling of absence in our self. It is possible to reach the feeling of completion and spiritual happiness inside us.

Your “Spiritual Life Coach” Işık Elçi will expose the feelings and the strength you had locked inside yourself, will determine the path that will reach your goals and will discover your aim and the talents you never knew you had.

- All the exercises are personal and a personal working plan is prepared for each participant after the first séance.
- In Spiritual Life Coaching, Quantum Techniques and Quantum Breathing Techniques are used if found necessary.
- The Spiritual Life Coach works with the Quantum applier.
- In the period following the séance, the feedback you our clients provide helps us determine the process concerning you.
- No other company in Turkey or abroad has the permission to apply Spiritual Life Coaching.
